May Events Leader and Chapter

The May event is a double header leader and chapter meeting. Michael Sherlock will be presenting on the subject of “How To Ask The Right Questions And Get The Most Out of Your Employees” for leaders in the community, open to all are interested. Then after dinner and a networking activity facilitated by VP of Events Lynn Ratkowski, Michael will again speak on the topic of “Are You Picking Up What I'm Laying Down? - Strategies for Selling Yourself”. You can follow Michael on Twitter @michaelspeaks and the chapter @iibanew.

BAs and Brews

Our new summer social series provides an opportunity to network where you're at. This free fun networking event is to be held in Green Bay, Appleton and Oshkosh. The purpose of the event is to provide a formal networking focused event allowing our community to develop deeper connections than what might be possible at the typical speaker led events. If you are interested in partnering with

I'm very interested in listening to Michael Sherlock speak. I've researched Michael's book "Tell Me More" and you just know you will walk away with new skills for your business analysis toolkit. - Christopher Petersen IIBA Northeast Wisconsin President
